

Missing a class? Here's how it works:

To progress to the next phase, you may miss a maximum of 2 classes per training phase (12 days). For the evening programme, you may miss up to 4 evenings, or 1 Saturday and 2 evenings per training phase. In addition, you may miss no more than 1 class per module, and you must have completed and presented all final assignments in order to move on to the next phase. (For the evening programme, this amounts to 2 evenings or 1 Saturday per module.) Being present at the final class is always mandatory to complete the module.

Is it possible to make up missed classes?

Making up missed classes is not possible, unless there are exceptional and compelling reasons. In some cases, it may be possible to attend a module in the next course season if space is available. Additional costs will apply. Please contact our administration by email at administratie@nia-academie.nl or by phone at 06-24145555 / 06-4274967 to discuss the options. Unfortunately, we cannot guarantee that making up a lesson or module will be possible.
